

ADMINISTRATIVE DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The Superintendent shall keep abreast of new and changing areas in the field of education by attending when possible the monthly CESA meetings, in-service meetings organized by the Department of Public Instruction and Wisconsin Association of School Administrators and may focus a full range of capacity-building activities through enrolling in a variety of workshops and conventions offered by various national, regional, and state professional associations.

Middle level management (administrative contracts) shall keep abreast of new and changing areas in education by attending when possible the monthly elementary and secondary principals' CESA meetings, in-service meetings organized by the DPI, the AWSA and may focus a full range of capacity-building activities through enrolling in a variety of workshops and conventions offered by various national, regional, and state professional associations.

LEGAL REFERENCE: Wisconsin Stats. 121.02 (1)(b), PI 8.01(2)(6),
W.3. Administrative Code